A Triple Legacy Affair

Celebrating Faith, Service, and Community

A Triple Legacy Affair honors a remarkable tradition of service and leadership that has strengthened Oakland for nearly seven decades.

On February 21, 2026, we will celebrate Bishop Joe L. Nobles' 90 years of life, 70 years of ministry, and 30 years of servant leadership—honoring a lifetime devoted to uplifting others and strengthening community.

This signature celebration will bring together community leaders, faith partners, church members, families, and supporters for an unforgettable evening featuring dinner and a cruise, documentary tribute, and live performances—honoring legacy while inspiring the future.

Event Highlights

- Honoring Bishop Joe L. Nobles' Vision - Celebrating 90 years of life, 70 years of ministry, and 30 years of servant leadership devoted to faith, compassion, and community.
- Recognizing Dancey Memorial's Impact - Highlighting decades of service that have shaped the spiritual and social fabric of East Oakland.
- A Night of Excellence - Uniting generations in celebration of legacy, leadership, and the future of ministry in Oakland.

Who we are

About Dancey Memorial COGIC

Founded in 1957 by Superintendent Joseph and Mother Plumie Dancey, Dancey Memorial Church of God in Christ has served as a cornerstone of faith and community in Oakland.

Under the leadership of Bishop Joe L. Nobles and Lady Joetta Nobles, the church continues its mission "Beyond These Walls," expanding outreach, youth programs, and community partnerships while strengthening its commitment to service, hope, and progress.

Why Become a Sponsor

Building Community and Legacy Together

- Celebrate Leadership: Honor Bishop Joe L. Nobles' decades of service and his lasting commitment to faith, family, and community.
- Support the Mission: Help advance our church's work serving seniors, youth, and families while funding vital improvements that strengthen our community.
- Share the Spotlight: Gain recognition throughout the event and across Dancey Memorial platforms celebrating service, leadership, and community growth.

Your partnership supports Dancey Memorial's mission to serve through faith, outreach, and community care. Sponsorship opportunities help strengthen our church, expand our programs, and continue building a better Oakland for all.
